

NISQUALLY INDIAN TRIBE
REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL
Cultural Activities Instructor(s)

The Nisqually Indian Tribe is a federally recognized Indian Tribe having a governing body and reserved sovereign powers over persons, property and activities within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Nisqually Indian Reservation, located in the State of Washington. The governing representative body of the Tribe, the Nisqually Tribal Council, may enter into contracts with various funding entities to provide services for the members of the Tribe.

The Nisqually Indian Tribe is currently seeking qualified Cultural Activities Instructors. Acceptable candidates must demonstrate competency in the areas taught and have good verbal and written communications skills. These are temporary contract positions. The selected candidates shall be required to submit to a police background check.

A. Scope of Work

The successful (Instructor) candidate shall be proficient in and be able to teach in one or more of the following areas:

Beading, carving, weaving, singing, drumming, dancing, gathering, food preparation, Twulshootseed, storytelling, sewing and other activities.

B. Base Bid

Each contract shall be negotiated individually and separately and shall have goals and objectives clearly defined. The base price shall be $25.00 per hour not to exceed twenty (20) hours per week paid by the Cultural Programs. This position shall report to the Cultural Programs Director.

C. Time of Completion

Time of completion shall be 200 hours or December 31, 2012.

D. Liability

The undersigned shall be responsible for any neglect or intentional damage done to the property while occupying property and acting as (Instructor).

E. Bidder

Name of Individual_____

Address_____

City, State, Zip_____

Tax Identification #_____

Please submit your proposal to:

Nisqually Indian Tribe
Nemah Choubaquak
Cultural Programs Director
4820 She Nah Num Drive SE
Olympia, WA 98513

Proposals will be considered and will be kept on file throughout 2012.